Be the BLESSING.

Suffering after two strokes. Fighting for disability income. Homeless for nearly two years. Isolated from his only child. These are the hardships Samuel faces. Released from incarceration in 2020, he describes the mental strain of “coming home to no one and nothing.”

While living in a shelter, Samuel relied on Catholic Charities Bishop Cosgrove Center for breakfast and lunch, hot showers, and human kindness. “Especially with this virus around, I can’t find the words to say what a blessing this has been.” With help from Catholic Charities, Samuel now has his own place, and the Cosgrove Center is providing furniture.

“I’m grateful for support from the Cosgrove Center. I’m not the only one. A lot of people are going through hard times. To get this help is unbelievable.”

SAMUEL, BISHOP COSGROVE CENTER

Be the INSPIRATION.

At 14, Yamileydis wants to be a leader in her community. She lives on Cleveland’s west side in a happy home. Her mother was born in Puerto Rico and speaks only Spanish. With three older brothers, she says, “There is always something going on!”

Last summer, Yamileydis participated in the Catholic Charities Hispanic Services drug and alcohol prevention program, creating posters and puppet shows about drug awareness and healthy behaviors. “We made posters about bullying because kids can be mean. But no matter what’s going on at home, you can be kind. The positive messages helped me a lot, too.” Yamileydis guided younger children while keeping older teen participants on task. She recommends the program for leadership skills, making friends, and inspiring younger kids.

“My mom liked the program. It put me in a positive mindset. I’m grateful to Catholic Charities Hispanic Services for a good program that helps our community.”

Be the LOVE.

At 96, Stan has lived a full life. He served in World War II, played college basketball, worked for Goodyear Aviation, and was a devoted husband and father of five. After his wife entered a nursing home, Stan continued to live independently and loves getting out twice a week to Catholic Charities Summit Adult Day Services. "I'm able to mix with people instead of sitting on my tuchus all day! I enjoy it, and they marvel at what I can do."

Stan's daughter, Anne, is delighted. "We knew that when my dad was going to be living alone, he needed activities and social interaction. All of us together couldn't duplicate their services."

"As you age, you need something to do. This is a great way to mingle with people, do crafts, exercise, activities – and the food is good!"
